

Victory World Missions Trip

Important Information and Requirements

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Our goal at Victory World Missions is to provide you with a positive missions experience full of great ministry.

In order to achieve this, we will travel to the places where people are in the countries we are going to. This means that we, as missionaries, must be prepared for anything and be flexible to adapt to whatever conditions may arise.

Financial deadlines are for your benefit. The $100 nonrefundable deposit that is turned in with this application allows us to reserve your airline ticket with the rest of the team. The rest of your monies turned in by the deadlines allow us to secure hotels, transportation, translators, and all the other items needed to make your trip successful.

Your land package on this trip includes all meals, hotel, transportation, and translators while you are in the designated country. Your meals, water, porters, etc., in the airports before you get in country and in airports on your way home to America as well as any gifts or souvenirs that you want to purchase will be at your own expense.

You will also need to be able to carry your own 50-pound piece of luggage and an additional 50-pound piece of luggage for the ministry to and from airports and through Customs. On travel days, we might encounter long layovers in airports or quick connections between flights. You may find yourself having to run or walk briskly in airports to make the flights.

Once in the country, you will also encounter times where you stand on your feet for long periods of time (possibly eight hours in a day) in places such as hard concrete, gravel parking lots, and dusty fields. We also must be prepared to experience in the countries we travel to either extreme hot or extreme cold temperatures in the buildings and places we minister. You will also need to be able to walk long distances to get to where we need to go.

Meals are scheduled at times around the ministry schedule and may not be at the time you are used to eating, such as early-morning breakfasts or late-night suppers. There are usually mini-refrigerators in your hotel room full of drinks and snack-type foods. Any item you eat or drink from the refrigerator and any long distance phone calls you make from your room are at your own expense and will need to be paid before you check out of the hotel at the end of the trip. Bottled water will be provided for you while in country.

We want you to understand that these things can be hard and difficult at times, but this gives us as missionaries an opportunity to grow. Flexibility is a necessity on these trips and we must be willing to endure uncomfortable situations in order to reach the people in other nations.

REQUIREMENTS

You must attend the mandatory team meeting scheduled before the trip because detailed important information will be given out at this meeting.

Be able to walk one mile at a brisk pace without stopping.

Be able to stand on your feet without sitting for several hours at a time.

Be able to go longer periods of time without eating a full meal.

Carry your own 50-pound piece of luggage plus one 50-pound piece of luggage for the ministry.

Meet all financial deadlines on time. If any deadlines are not met, you will be transferred over to the next trip VWM has scheduled within a one year time frame.

Pay for your food, water, porters, and phone calls in airports to and from the country we are traveling to.

Please speak to your doctor if you are concerned about any of these requirements before signing this form.
